1. On 17 April 1947, representatives from the Central Intelligence Group visited this organization in order to ascertain the exact functions and mission of the Special Document Section. At this time it was requested that an outline of the mission of SDS as of 1 April 1947 be drawn up so that the continuance of the present projects can be facilitated when this section comes under the control of the Documents Branch of Central Intelligence Group.

2. As a result of this request, the attached outline of the assignment of projects has been drafted for your approval. (See Tab "A")

3. Also attached is a recapitulation of the status of current projects. (See Tab "B")
